Independent auditor's report on the consolidated annual accounts

To the shareholders of VBARE Iberian Properties SOCIMI, S.A.:

Report on the consolidated annual accounts

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated Financial Statements of VBARE Iberian Properties SOCIMI, S.A. (the Parent company) and its subsidiaries (the Group), which comprise Statement of Financial Position as at December 31, 2019, and the income statement, statement of Comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity, statements of cash flows and notes to the consolidated financial statements, all consolidated, for the year then ended.

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the equity and financial position of the Group as at December 31, 2019, as well as its financial performance and cash flows, all consolidated, for the year then ended, in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards as adopted by the European Union (IFRS-EU) and other provisions of the financial reporting framework applicable in Spain.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with legislation governing the audit practice in Spain. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report.

We are independent of the Group in accordance with the ethical requirements, including those relating to independence, that are relevant to our audit of the consolidated financial statements in Spain, in accordance with legislation governing the audit practice. In this regard, we have not rendered services other than those relating to the audit of the accounts, and situations or circumstances have not arisen that, in accordance with the provisions of the aforementioned legislation, have affected our necessary independence such that it has been compromised.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Most relevant aspects of the audit

The most relevant aspects of the audit are those that, in our professional judgment, were considered to be the most significant risks of material misstatement in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These risks were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these risks.

Most relevant aspects of the audit	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
Valuation of investment property
At 31 December 2019, investment property accounts for 96% of the Group's assets. The Group applies the fair value model in accordance with IAS 40, recognizing any changes in that value in the consolidated income statement, as described in Note 3.3. Accordingly, the Group recognized a change in the fair value of the investment property in its portfolio amounting to €4.384 thousand at 31 December 2019, as described in Note 6. The Group recognizes the market value of the investment property based on the valuations performed by independent experts. The valuations were performed in accordance with the Valuation and Appraisal Standards published by the Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors (RICS) of Great Britain, and the method has been described in Note 6 to the accompanying consolidated financial statements. The degree of uncertainty in the assumptions applied to the calculation of that market value and the level of estimations that exist in the valuation methods applied, lead the valuation of investment property to be considered a most relevant aspect of the audit	We obtained the investment property valuation prepared by independent management's experts and we applied the following procedures, among others: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Verification of the competence, capacity and independence of the experts by obtaining confirmation and verification of their recognized prestige in the market, and we discussed the main aspects of the valuation at meetings held with the experts. • Verification that the valuation has been performed in accordance with the RICS method and may be used to value investment property in the consolidated financial statements. • Performance of selective tests to determine and verify the accuracy of the most relevant information provided by management to the appraisers and used by them in their valuation. • Verification of the adequacy of the method and assumptions used according to market conditions. As a result of the procedures carried out, we consider that the results of investment property valuation carried out by management falls within a reasonable range taking into account market conditions in place at the date to which it refers. Furthermore, we evaluated the sufficiency of the information disclosed in the financial statements prepared by VBARE Iberian Properties SOCIMI, S.A. and subsidiaries regarding this matter, considering that it is consistent and reasonable.

Other information: Consolidated directors' report

Other information comprises only the consolidated directors' report for the 2019 financial year, the formulation of which is the responsibility of the Parent company's directors and does not form an integral part of the consolidated financial statements.

Our audit opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the consolidated director's report. Our responsibility regarding the consolidated director's report, in accordance with legislation governing the audit practice, is to evaluate and report on the consistency between the consolidated director's report and the consolidated financial statements as a result of our knowledge of the Group obtained during the audit of the aforementioned financial statements, and does not include information different to that obtained as evidence during our audit. Likewise, our responsibility is to evaluate and report on whether the content and presentation of the consolidated director's report is in accordance with applicable regulations. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that material misstatements exist, we are required to report that fact.

On the basis of the work performed, as described in the previous paragraph, the information contained in the consolidated directors' report is consistent with that contained in the consolidated financial statements for the 2019 financial year, and its content and presentation are in accordance with the applicable regulations.

Responsibility of the directors for the consolidated annual accounts

The Parent company's directors are responsible for the preparation of the accompanying consolidated financial statements, such that they fairly present the consolidated equity, financial position and financial performance of the Group, in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards as adopted by the European Union and other provisions of the financial reporting framework applicable to the Group in Spain, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the Parent company's directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated annual accounts

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with legislation governing the audit practice in Spain will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

VBARE Iberian Properties SOCIMI, S.A. and subsidiaries

As part of an audit in accordance with legislation governing the audit practice in Spain, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Parent company's directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the Parent company's directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Parent company's directors regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

From the significant risks communicated with the Parent company's directors, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are, therefore, considered to be the most significant risks..

We describe these risks in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter.

3. Accounting policies

The main accounting principles, policies and measurement criteria used by the Group in preparing the current Consolidated Financial Statements and which are in conformity with the IFRS-EU in force at the date of the corresponding Consolidated Financial Statements are detailed below:

3.1. Consolidation policies

(a) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are all entities over which the Group has control. The existence and effect of potential voting rights that are currently exercisable or convertible are considered when assessing whether the Group controls another entity. Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are de-consolidated from the date that control ceases.

The acquisition method of accounting is used to account for business combinations by the Group. The consideration paid for the acquisition of a subsidiary consists of the fair value of the assets transferred, the liabilities incurred with the former owners of the acquired company and the equity shares issued by the Group. The consideration transferred includes the fair value of any asset or liability deriving from an agreement for contingent consideration. The identifiable assets acquired, and the liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed on a business combination are initially measured at fair value on the acquisition date. For each business combination, the Group may opt to recognize any non-controlling interest in the acquired at fair value or at the proportional part of the non-controlling interest of the amounts recognized in respect of the net identifiable assets of the acquired.

Related costs are expensed in the year in which they are incurred.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the carrying value on the acquisition date of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquired is re-measured at fair value at the acquisition date. Any gain or loss arising on this subsequent measurement is recognized in profit or loss for the year. Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the Group is recognized at fair value on the acquisition date. Subsequent changes in the fair value of contingent consideration classified as an asset or a liability are recognized in accordance with IAS 39 in profit or loss or in other comprehensive income, Contingent consideration which is classified as equity is not re-measured and its subsequent settlement is recognized in equity.

Intercompany transactions, balances and unrealized gains on transactions between Group companies are eliminated. Unrealized losses are also eliminated. Amounts presented by the subsidiaries have been adjusted where necessary to adapt them to the Group's accounting policies.

(b) Changes in the ownership stakes in subsidiaries without any change in control

Transactions involving non-controlling shareholdings that do not result in a loss of control are recognized as equity transactions, i.e. as transactions with owners in their capacity as such. The difference between the fair value of the compensation paid and the acquired proportional amount of the carrying value of the subsidiary's net assets is recognized under equity. Gains or losses on the disposal of non-controlling shareholdings are recognized under equity.

(c) Disposal of subsidiaries

When the Group ceases to have control, any shareholding retained in the Company is restated at fair value on the date on which control is lost, recognizing the change in the carrying value in the income statement. Fair value is the initial carrying value for the purposes of the subsequent recognition of the shareholding maintained as an associate, joint venture or financial asset. In addition, any amount previously recognized under other comprehensive income with respect to that company is recorded as if the Group had directly sold the related assets and liabilities. This could entail that the amounts previously recognized in the other comprehensive income are reclassified to the income statement.

3.2. Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment is stated at historical cost less depreciation. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the consolidated income statement during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Depreciation of property, plant and equipment, is calculated systematically using the straight-line method over the assets' estimated useful lives based on the actual decline in value brought about by operation, use and possession.

The estimated useful lives are as follows:

Property, plant & equipment	Useful life (years)
Furniture	5
Data-processing equipment	5

Any changes which, if appropriate, may arise in the residual value, useful life and depreciation method of an asset are reflected as changes in the accounting estimates unless it relates to an error. When the value of an asset exceeds its estimated recoverable amount, its value is reduced immediately to its recoverable amount.

Gains and losses on the sale of property, plant and equipment are calculated by comparing the revenue obtained with the carrying value and are recognised in the consolidated income statement.

3.3. Investment property

Investment property comprises buildings under construction and development for use as investment property, which are partially or fully held to generate revenue, profits or both, rather than for use in the production or supply of goods or services, or for the Group's administrative purposes or sale in the ordinary course of business. Investment property also includes land, buildings, other constructions and furniture held to earn rents or for capital appreciation upon disposal due to increases in their respective market prices in the future.

The Parent Company's Directors do not plan to dispose of these assets in the near future and have therefore decided to recognize them as investment property in the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position.

Investment property is initially carried at cost, including related transaction costs and financing costs, if applicable. Following initial recognition, investment property is carried at fair value.

Investment properties are stated at fair value at the end of the reporting period and are not depreciated in accordance with the provisions of IAS 40.

Gains or losses arising from changes in the fair value of investment property are included in the consolidated income statement in the period in which they arise.

Subsequent expenses are recognized at the asset's carrying value only when it is likely that future profits associated with the expenses will flow to the Group and the item's cost may be reliably measured. Other repair and upkeep expenses are recognized under expenses for the year in which they are incurred. When part of an investment property is replaced, the carrying amount of the replaced part is written off.

In accordance with IAS 40, the Group periodically determines the fair value of its investment property to ensure the fair value reflects the actual market conditions of the investment property at that date. Fair value is determined quarterly based on independent expert appraisals.

Initial direct costs incurred by the Group in negotiating and arranging an operating lease, such as letting fees, are added to the fair value of the leased investment properties and recognised as an expense over the minimum lease term on the same basis as the lease income, according to IAS 40 and IAS 17.

3.4. Leases

Leases are always classified as finance leases whenever the terms thereof reveal that the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to the lessee.

All other leases are classified as operating leases. As at 31 December 2019 and 31 December 2018, the Group has no finance leases.

Operating Lease

- a) Group is the lessee:

Expenses arising from operating leases are charged to the consolidated income statement in the year in which it accrues.

- b) Group is the lessor:

Income arising from operating leases is charged to the consolidated income statement in the year in which it accrues.

Any charges that might be made when entering into an operating lease is treated as an advance payment charged as income over the lease term, as they are assigned or receive the benefits of the leased asset on a straight-line basis.

3.5. Financial Assets

a) Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. They are included in current assets, except for maturities over 12 months from the date of the consolidated statement of financial position are classified as non-current assets.

These financial assets are initially measured at fair value, including transaction costs that they are directly attributable and subsequently at amortized cost, recognizing the interest accrued based on their effective interest rate, defined as the rate that equals the value carrying the instrument with all its estimated cash flows to maturity.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the trade receivables maturing in less than one year are measured both at the time of initial recognition and subsequently at their nominal value provided that the effect of not discounting flows are not significant.

At least at the year end, the necessary value adjustments are made to account for impairment when there is objective evidence that all receivables will not be collected.

The amount of the impairment loss is the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the effective interest rate prevailing at the date of initial recognition. Value adjustments, and reversals, where applicable, are recognized in the consolidated income statement.

3.6. Financial Liabilities

a) Creditors and Payables

This includes trade and non-trade payables. Borrowings are classed as current liabilities unless the Company has an unconditional right to defer settlement for at least 12 months as from the consolidated statement of financial position date.

Payables are initially recognized at fair value, adjusted for directly attributable transaction costs, and subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method. The effective interest rate is the discount rate that brings the instrument's carrying amount into line with the expected future flow of payments to the maturity date of the liability.

Trade payables falling due in less than one year without a contractual interest rate are carried at their face value at both initial recognition and subsequent measurement, provided that the effect of not discounting flows is not significant.

The Group de-recognizes a financial liability when the obligation is extinguished.

When an exchange of debt instruments occurs, provided they have substantially different conditions, the lower of the original financial liability is recorded and the new financial liability is recognized. In the same way a substantial change in the current conditions of a financial liability is recorded. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability, or part thereof has been discharged, and the consideration paid, including attributable transaction cost, and which also includes any new different asset transferred cash or liabilities assumed, is recognized in the consolidated income statement it occurs.

When an exchange of debt instruments that do not have substantially different conditions, the original financial liability is not derecognized from the consolidated statement of financial position, recording the amount of commission paid as an adjustment to the carrying value occurs. The new amortized cost of a financial liability is determined by applying the effective interest rate, which is one that equals the carrying amount of the financial liability at the date of modification with the cash flows payable under the new conditions.

In the event of the renegotiation of existing debts, the financial liability is not deemed to change significantly when the lender of the new loan is the same as the initial lender and the present value of cash flows, including net fees, is not more than 10% higher or lower than the present value of cash flows payable on the original liability, calculated using the same method.

Borrowings

Financial debts are initially recognised at fair value, less any transaction costs incurred. Financial debts are subsequently carried at amortised cost: any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption value is recognised in the consolidated income statement over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method.

3.7. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include petty cash, bank accounts and deposits with credit institutions and highly liquid investments, including short-term, highly liquid deposits that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

Also, the balance of "Cash and cash equivalents" includes a certain amount which is considered restricted, whose management have been entrusted to the liquidity provider (Renta 4 Banco, S.A.) in order to facilitate the liquidity of the transactions affecting shares in the Company.

3.8. Share capital

Share capital consists of nominative ordinary shares.

The costs of issuing new shares are recognized directly in equity as a reduction in share premium.

In the event that the Company acquires treasury shares, the compensation paid including any incremental cost that is directly attributable, is deducted from equity until the shares are redeemed, issued again or otherwise disposed of. When treasury shares are subsequently sold or reissued, any amount received is taken to equity net of directly attributable incremental costs.

3.9. Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share are calculated as the ratio between net profit attributable to the Parent Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the year or period, excluding the average number of shares of the Parent Company held the Group companies.

3.10. Provisions

A provision in accordance with IAS 37 is recognized when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. Provisions are not recognized for future operating losses.

Provisions are carried at the present value of forecast payments that are expected to be required to settle the obligation, using a rate before taxes that reflects the current market assessment of the time value of money and the specific risks of the obligation. The adjustments to the provision due to the restatement are recognized as a financial expense as they would have been accrued.

Provisions maturing in one year or less, the financial effect of which is immaterial, are not discounted. When it is expected that a portion of the payment necessary to cancel the provision will be reimbursed by a third party the reimbursement is recognized as an independent asset, provided that receipt of the reimbursement is practically certain.

The services received under the Success Fee agreement have been treated following IFRS 2 "Share-based payments", recognized as a liability at fair value.

3.11. Employee benefits

a) Severance payments

Termination benefits are paid to employees as a result of the Group's decision to terminate its employment contract before the normal retirement age or when the employee agrees to voluntarily resign in exchange for such benefits. The Group recognizes these benefits when there is a proved commitment to terminate the employees in accordance with a detailed formal plan without possibility of withdrawal or to provide termination benefits as a result of an offer to encourage a voluntary resignation. Benefits that will not be paid in the twelve months following the consolidated statement of financial position date are discounted to their present value.

b) Profit sharing and bonus plans

The Group recognizes a liability and an expense for bonus and profit sharing based on a formula that takes into account the profit attributable to its shareholders after certain adjustments. The Group recognizes an accrual when it is contractually bound or when practice in the past has created an implied obligation.

3.12. Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized in profit or loss when it can be measured reliably, it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the Group and the costs incurred or to be incurred in respect of the transaction can be measured reliably. Revenues from rental incomes are recognized as fair value of the consideration less trade discounts, volume discounts and taxes.

When the Group acts as a principal and is exposed to the risks associated with the transaction, revenues are presented on a gross basis. When the Group acts as an agent and is not exposed to the risks and rewards associated with the transaction, revenues are presented on a net basis. Revenues are measured at the fair value of the consideration less any trade discounts, volume rebates and returns.

Rental income

Rental income is recognised on a straight-line basis over the best estimate of the term of the lease. In the event that a lease contract is terminated earlier than expected, the registration of the outstanding rent or bonus is recorded in the last period before the end of the contract.

3.13. Operating segment information

Information on operating segments is reported on the basis of the internal information supplied to the ultimate decision-making body, the Board of Directors, which have been identified as the highest decision-making authority, being responsible for allocating resources and assessing the performance of operating segments.

The members of the Board of Directors have established that the Group has only one activity segment as at the date of these Consolidated Financial Statements.

3.14. Income taxes

General Tax regime

The expense or income from the income tax includes both current and deferred taxes. Taxes are recognized in profit or loss, except to the extent that they relate to items recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

The current tax expense is calculated based on the laws approved or about to be approved at the balance sheet date in the countries in which the Company operates and those that generate positive taxable bases. The Directors periodically evaluate the positions taken in the tax returns regarding situations in which the applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation, and, if necessary, establishes provisions based on the amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Deferred taxes are recognized for temporary differences that arise between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the annual accounts. However, deferred taxes are not recognized if they arise from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction, other than a business combination, which, at the time of the transaction, does not affect the accounting result or profit or loss, tax loss. The deferred tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) approved or about to be approved on the balance sheet date and that are expected to be applied when the corresponding deferred tax asset is realized, or the deferred tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are recognized only to the extent that it is probable that future tax benefits will be available with which to offset the temporary differences.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognized on the taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint arrangements, except for those deferred tax liabilities for which the Company can control the date on which the temporary differences will revert and it is probable that they will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Generally, the Company is not able to control the reversal of temporary differences for associates. Only when there is an agreement that grants the Company the ability to control the reversal of the temporary difference is it not recognized.

Deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences arising from investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint arrangements only to the extent that it is probable that the temporary difference will revert in the future and that a sufficient tax profit is expected against the than to use the temporary difference.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset if, and only if, there is a legally recognized right to offset current tax assets with current tax liabilities and when deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities, they are derived from the tax on the corresponding profits to the same fiscal authority, that fall on the same entity or fiscal subject, or different entities or fiscal subjects, that they try to liquidate the current fiscal assets and liabilities for their net amount.

At each accounting closing, the assets for deferred taxes recorded are reconsidered, making the appropriate corrections to them to the extent that there are doubts about their future recovery. Likewise, deferred tax assets not recorded in the balance sheet are evaluated at each closing date and these are recognized as long as their recovery with future tax benefits becomes probable.

SOCIMI tax regime

On 13 of May 2015 the Parent Company communicated to the corresponding Tax authorities (Delegación de la Agencia Estatal de la Administración Tributaria) its decision to apply for the SOCIMI special tax regime. This application was approved by its shareholders by mean of Universal Shareholders' Meeting held on 23 March 2015. The application has retroactive effect from the fiscal year beginning at the date of its incorporation, 5 March 2015.

On 8 March 2016 the Parent Company as sole shareholder of VBA SUB 3000, S.L.U. decided its subsidiary to apply for the Socimi Regime with retroactive effect from the 1 January 2016 (Company liquidated during 2018).

On September 27, 2018 the Parent Company as sole shareholder of VBA SUB 2018, S.L.U. decided that this company should apply for the SOCIMI regime with retroactive effect from January 1, 2018.

The SOCIMI special regime, after its modification by the law 16/2012 of December 27, this built upon the basis of a 0% rate taxation on the Corporate Income Tax, as long as certain requirements are fulfilled.

Nevertheless, the tax will rise proportionally to the dividend distribution. On the event of generating tax losses it will not apply the Law 27/2014, of 27 November of the Corporate Income Tax, It will not apply either the regimes of deductions and bonuses stated on the chapters II, III and IV of the mentioned CIT Law. On the rest of events not foreseen on the SOCIMI Law, it will apply what has been established on the Corporate Income Tax Law.

As stated in the article 9 of the SOCIMI Law, the Company will be submitted to a special rate of 19% of the total amount of dividends or shares on profits distributed to the shareholders which shares on the company's capital is equal or superior to a 5%, provided that the mentioned dividends, on the shareholder place of residence, were exempt or a tax inferior to the 10% applies. The mentioned rate will be considered as the Corporate Income Tax quota. On this sense the Group has established a procedure that guarantees the confirmation by the shareholders of its taxation and the withholding, when applicable, of the 19% of the amount of the dividend distributed to those shareholders who do not fulfil the aforementioned tax requirements.

The application of the SOCIMI regime previously described was initiated from the financial year beginning on 5 March 2015 notwithstanding that the Company did not comply with all the requirements of the standard for its application since, under the First Transitional provision of Law 11/2009 of the SOCIMI regime, the Company has a 2 years period since the SOCIMI regime was opted for, in order to fulfil with all the requirements stated in the mentioned law. As of 31 December 2019, and as of 31 December 2018, the Company meets all the requirements of the SOCIMI Regime according to the Parent Company's Directors.

The proposed distribution of the fiscal year 2018 results from the Parent Company stand-alone annual accounts approved by the Parent Company's General Shareholders' Meeting was the application of the year losses to previous year's results. The Board of Directors of the Parent Company expect that the loss generated on fiscal year 2018 will be offset by future year's profits. Besides, the group subsidiary has not distributed any dividends to the Parent Company either during the year ended 31 December 2019, nor the year ended 31 December 2018.

Other taxes

Considering the fact that the Group obtains its income mainly from the lease of real estate for residential purposes, it does not apply VAT on its customers. The Parent Company applies in its taxation the rule of the general pro rata, by which the taxpayer can deduct a percentage of the supported VAT that is determined by the quotient of the total volume of transactions that generate the right to deduct between the total volume of operations made with and without right to deduction.

3.15. Related-party transactions

In general, transactions between group companies are initially recognized at fair value. If applicable, where the agreed price differs from the fair value, the difference is recognized based on the economic reality of the transaction. Transactions are subsequently measured in accordance with applicable standards.

3.16. Environmental information

They are considered assets of environmental nature those assets that are used regularly in the Group's core activity, whose main purpose is to minimize environmental impact and protect and improve the environment, including the reduction or elimination of future pollution.

The Group activity, by its own nature, has no significant environmental impact.

4. Use of estimates

The preparation of the Consolidated Financial Statements requires Directors to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, income and expense. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The Board of Directors reviews these estimates on a continuous basis. However, given the uncertainty inherent to these estimates, there is a significant risk that significant adjustments could arise in the future regarding the value of the associated assets and liabilities and significant changes in the assumptions, events and circumstances on which they are based.

In preparing these Consolidated Financial Statements, the significant judgments made by the Parent Company's Directors in applying the group's accounting policies and the key sources of estimation uncertainty are as follows:

Fair value of investment properties

Fair value is determined by independent external valuation experts ("appraiser") using valuation techniques and assumptions as to estimates of projected future cash flows from the property and estimate of the suitable discount rate for these cash flows and by management's evaluations which are based on economic models.

As for investment properties under development also requires an estimate of construction costs, if applicable, fair value is determined based on recent real estate transactions with similar features and location than the valued property.

The best evidence of the fair value of investment property in an active market is the price of similar assets. In the absence of such information, the appraiser determines fair value using a range of reasonable values. When making such judgments, the appraiser uses a series of sources, including:

- i, Current prices on an active market of different kinds of properties in different conditions or locations, adjusted for differences with the Group's assets.
- ii, Recent prices of properties on other less active markets, adjusted for changes in economic conditions since the transaction date.
- iii, Discounting of cash flows based on estimates deriving from the terms and conditions of current lease contracts and, if possible, the evidence of the market prices of similar properties in the same location, through the use of discount rates reflecting the uncertainty of the time factor.

Valuation techniques and assumptions used to measure fair value

The fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities are determined as follows:

- Fair values of financial assets or liabilities with standard terms and conditions traded on active liquid markets are determined by reference to their quoted market price.
- Fair values of other financial assets and financial liabilities (excluding derivative instruments) are determined in accordance with generally accepted pricing models based on discounted cash flow analysis using prices from observable market transactions and dealer quotes for similar instruments.

Financial instruments measured subsequent to initial recognition at fair value are grouped into Levels 1 to 3 based on the degree to which the fair value is observable:

- Level 1: Measurements derived from (unadjusted) quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities,
- Level 2: Measurements derived from inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e., as prices) or indirectly (i.e., derived from prices).
- Level 3: Measurements derived from valuation techniques that include inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (non-observable inputs).

In Note 6 also is provided information on how the fair value of investment properties is calculated in accordance with the valuation techniques described in the said note. The investment properties measured at fair value (without taking into account the advance on payments in investment properties, if any) as at 31 December 2019 and 31 December 2018 are as follows:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Investment properties (note 6)	-	-	72,945	72,945
Total 31.12.2019	-	-	72,945	72,945
Investment properties (note 6)	-	-	50,098	50,098
Total 31.12.2018	-	-	50,098	50,098

Corporate income tax

The Company has opted for the tax regime established in the Law 11/2009, 26 October, governing the Sociedades Cotizadas de Inversión en el Mercado Inmobiliario (SOCIMI), which in practice means that provided certain requirements are met, the Company is subject to a corporate income tax rate of 0%.

The Parent Company's Directors monitors on a quarterly basis the compliance with the relevant legal requirements in order to secure the tax advantages established therein.

In this respect, the Parent Company's Directors consider that such requirements have been met within the established terms and periods and have therefore recognized no income or expense in respect of the Corporate Income Tax.

5. Financial risk management and Financial instruments

5.1 Financial risk factors

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks. The Group's overall risk management program is based on the uncertainty of financial markets and aims to minimize the adverse effects of such risks on the financial profitability of the Group.

Risk management is undertaken by the Management Company (VBA Real Estate Asset Management 3000, S.L.) in accordance with the policies approved by the Board of Directors.

5.1.1 Market risk

Given the current status of the real-estate sector and in order to mitigate the effects thereof, the Group has specific measures in place to minimize the impact on its financial position.

These measures are applied pursuant to the results of sensitivity analyses carried out by the Group on a regular basis and on the basis of the strategy outlined in their business plan.

- Foreign exchange risk

The Group is not exposed to exchange rate fluctuations as all its operations are in its functional and its presentation currency (Euro).

- Interest rate risk

The Group's interest rate risk arises from long term borrowings. Borrowings issued at variable interest rates expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk.

The Group analyses exposure to interest rate dynamically. Various scenarios are simulated, taking into consideration alternative financing sources. Based on these scenarios, the Group calculates the impact on consolidated income statement of a defined interest rate shift. The scenarios are run only for liabilities that represent the major interest-bearing positions.

In nominal terms, borrowings issued at fixed and variable rates as of 31 December 2019 and 31 December 2018 are as follows:

	Euro Thousand
	31/12/2019	31/12/2018
Borrowings at variable rate	1,838	1,912
Borrowings at fixed rate (*)	17,881	14,854
TOTAL	19,719	16,766

(*) VBARE Iberian Properties Socimi, S.A., has a mortgage loan for an amount of 3,430,000 euros at 20 years formalized in 2019 which accrues a fixed interest rate during the first 12 years and variable from year 13. This mortgage loan for the purposes of the above table is considered "Borrowings at fixed rate".

(*) VBA SUB 2018, S.L.U. has a mortgage loan for an amount of 5,250,000 euros at 21 years formalized in 2018 which accrues a fixed interest rate during the first 12 years and variable from year 13. This mortgage loan for the purposes of the above table is considered "Borrowings at fixed rate".

Based on the simulations performed, the recalculated impact on profit after tax of a 100 bps change in the reference interest rate (12-month Euribor) will result in a maximum increase of EUR 18 thousand or a decrease of EUR 0 thousand at 31 December 2019 (an increase of EUR 18 thousand or a decrease of EUR 0 thousand at 31 December 2018). The simulation is carried out periodically in order to ensure that the maximum potential loss is within the limit established by the Board of Directors.

5.1.2 Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is defined as the risk of the Group encountering difficulties meeting its obligations regarding financial liabilities settled in cash or with other financial assets.

The Group conducts prudent management of liquidity risk by maintaining sufficient cash to meet its payment obligations when they fall due, both in normal and stressed conditions, without incurring unacceptable losses or risking the Group's reputation.

The Group monitors on monthly basis the compliance with the requirements stated in the loan agreements as well as the sufficiency for facing the financial obligations derived from the agreement.

5.1.3 Credit risk

The Group holds cash and deposits in Spanish banks. The Group is exposed to the stability of these banks and their solvency risk.

Another credit risk arises from the profile of the Group's tenants. The Group only accepts tenants with the highest credit quality, but there are purchasing operations in which the asset is acquired with valid tenants with no previous validation carried out by the Group. In addition, the Group hedges the risk with security deposits paid by the tenants. A strict scoring process has been put in place in order to minimise the risk of defaults.

During 2018, the Group began to insure the contracts signed through default insurance. These insurances cover possible non-payment by tenants for a maximum period of 12 months and also cover the costs related to legal proceedings and other costs arising therefrom. At 31 December 2019, 41% of the contracts in force were covered by insurance against default (19% at 31 December 2018).

5.1.4 Tax risk

As mentioned in Note 1, the Parent Company and its subsidiary have applied for the SOCIMI regime. In accordance with Article 6 of the Law 11/2009, amended by the Law 16/2012, the companies availing themselves of this regime are required to distribute in the form of dividends to their shareholders, following compliance with the pertinent mercantile obligations, the profit obtained in the year. The distribution must be approved within the six months following the year end and paid within one month since the distribution agreement.

If the General Shareholders' Meeting of such companies does not approve the dividend distribution proposed by the Board of Directors, calculated in accordance with the requirements of the SOCIMI Law, they would be in breach of the said Law and they would therefore be taxed under the general tax scheme (Note 3.14).

6. Investment property

Investment properties comprise: apartment buildings, scattered apartments, storage rooms, parking spaces and retail assets owned by the Group for rent on a long-term basis and not occupied by the Group.

The identification of qualified assets included under this note in accordance with the Article 11 of SOCIMI Law and is included in Appendix I to the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Valuation Process

At 31 December 2019 and 31 December 2018 investment properties are recognized at fair value. The fair value of the Group's investment properties is calculated on the basis of independent appraisers' reports not related to the Group.

Below is the cost and fair value of investment properties at 31 December 2019 and 31 December 2018:

	31 December 2019		31 December 2018
	Cost	Fair value	Cost	Fair value
Investment properties	51,276	72,945	32,712	50,098

Gains recognized in the consolidated income statement on measuring investment property at fair value as of 31 December 2019 amount to Euro 4,384 Thousand (2018: Euro 6,563 Thousand). According to IFRS 13, some situations may arise where transaction prices may not represent the fair value of an asset at initial recognition.

These investments have been valued following a market value approach, and these valuations have been performed by an independent expert firm in accordance with the provisions of the RICS Appraisal and Valuation Manual (the "Red Book") published by The Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors based in England.

The market value is defined as the estimated amount for which an asset can be sold on a given market at the date of valuation between a seller and a willing buyer, being both reasonably knowledgeable about the asset, prudently, free of undue pressure to trade and assuming a reasonable time period is given for completing the transaction.

Methodology:

a) Discounted cash flows method:

The valuation methodology adopted in terms of determining fair value of currently suitable to be rented properties is the discounted cash flows method with projected net operating income at 5 years and capitalizing the 6th year at an exit yield between 3.00% and 6.75% (between 3.25% and 5.75% as of 31 December 2018) and using an Internal Rate of Return for discounting cash flows obtained between 5.00% and 7.5% (between 4.5% and 7% as of 31 December 2018).

The discounted cash flow method is based on predictions of the probable net income that will be generated by assets over a specific time period, taking into account the assets' residual value at the end of that period. Cash flows are discounted at an internal rate of return in order to arrive at the present net value. That internal rate of return is adjusted to reflect the risk associated with the investment and assumptions adopted.

Key variables are therefore net income, approximate residual value and internal rate of return.

Sensitivity analysis

Based on the simulations performed, the impact over fair value of investment properties of a 1% change in the internal rate of return would produce the following impacts:

	Euro thousand
	Theoretical value
	31 December 2019		31 December 2018
	+1%	-1%	+1%	-1%
Valued using discounted cash flows method	69,760	76,321	47,971	52,271
Valued using comparable method	-	-	-	-
Fair value of investment properties	69,760	76,321	47,971	52,271

Operating leases

The entire amount recognised as revenue for the period has its origin in lease contracts.

Total amount of future minimum collections under non-cancellable operating leases is as follows:

	Euro Thousand
	31 December 2019	31 December 2018
Less than one year	652	314
Between one and two years	122	-
Between two and three years	112	-
More than four years	-	-
	886	314

The lease contracts signed by the Group with its tenants from March 2019 have a typical length of one year being the option granted to the tenant to prorogue them up to seven years (three years for leases signed before March 2019). Regardless the maximum duration and for the purposes of this note, it has been considered as minimum future collections the following 12 months after the lease contract formalization.

The Group has formalized in 2019 a lease agreement for a retail unit for a minimum mandatory period of three years.

Commitments

As of 31 December 2019, and 2018 the Group has no contractual commitments for the acquisition, construction or development of investment properties or in relation to repairs, maintenance or insurance.

Mortgages

Certain assets include under the caption Investment Properties, whose whole fair value amounts to Euro 67,266 Thousand as of 31 December 2019 (Euro 49,954 Thousand as of 31 December 2018) serves as guarantee of the compliance with the obligations arranged as a result of the financing obtained by the Group (Note 11).

The total amount does not match with the analysis by categories because the loans that the Group formalized with the different financial entities were accounted at each moment at amortized cost, resulting all the costs incurred in arranging such financing and paid in full, are netting the outstanding debt and they will be amortized during the life of each loan. The amount pending to be amortized as of December 31, 2019 amounts to 301 thousand euros (215 thousand euros as of December 31, 2018).

Non-current assets and liabilities relate to deposits linked to lease contracts. Its maturity is conditioned to the maturity of these contracts. It is the Group estimation that the average maturity of leasing contracts will range from two to three years.

8. Cash and cash equivalents

"Cash and cash equivalents" includes the Group's cash on hand and in banks and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less. The carrying amount of these assets is equal to their fair value.

As of 31 December 2019, and 31 December 2018, the balance of "Cash and cash equivalents" is not restricted, except for a total amount of Euro 205 Thousand (Euro 361 Thousand as of 31 December 2018) whose management have been entrusted to the liquidity provider (Renta 4 Banco, S.A.).

The SOCIMI is required to distribute the profit generated during the year to shareholders as dividends. Once the corresponding mercantile obligations have been fulfilled, said distribution must be agreed within six months of the year end. The Company must distribute the following as dividends:

- 100% of the profit from dividends or shares in profits distributed by the entities referred to in Section 1, Article 2 of the SOCIMI Law.
- At least 50% of the profits arising from the transfer of the properties, shares or ownership interests referred to in Section 1, Article 2 of the SOCIMI Law, subsequent to expiry of the time limits referred to in Section 3, Article 3 of the Law aforesaid, which are used for pursuit of the entities' principal corporate purpose. The distribution obligation does not extend to the portion of these profits, if any, which may be allocated to years in which the Company did not file tax returns under the SOCIMI special tax regime.
- At least 80% of the remaining profits obtained.

When dividend distributions are charged to reserves generated from profits in a year in which the special tax regime applied, the distribution must necessarily be approved as set out above.

12.3 Years open to review and tax inspections

Under current legislation, taxes cannot be deemed to have been definitively settled until the tax returns filed have been reviewed by the tax authorities or until the four-year statute of limitations has expired. As of 31 December 2019, all the taxes applicable for which the Group companies are liable since its incorporation are open to inspection.

As a result, among other things, of the different interpretations to which Spanish tax legislation lends itself, additional tax liabilities may arise in the event of a tax inspection. In any event, the Directors consider that such liabilities, if ever they arise, will not have a significant effect on the accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements.

11. Prospects for the 2020 financial year

After a very positive 2019, the Group expects that 2020 will be an even better year in economic and operational terms and that it will be the year of consolidation as one of the "key players" in the residential rental sector in Spain.

In spite of the current uncertainty weighing on the world economy, it is expected that Spain, and more particularly Madrid, will have economic growth above the average of the surrounding countries. It is expected that, by 2020, Madrid, where the Company has put the greatest focus of investment, will be the only Spanish region with growth in excess of 2%.

In addition, unemployment in Spain is expected to continue to fall, although at lower rates than in previous years. In the specific case of Madrid, this rate is expected to be below 10% in 2020, well below the Spanish average.

In demographic terms and according to the INE, Madrid's population is expected to grow by 11% by 2033, which means a number of approximately 55,000 citizens per year. These data only reinforce the Group's commitment to investing in the residential market in Madrid with a strategy of value creation that will satisfy the demand for rental housing.

In relation to the number of transactions and the evolution of prices, we observe that they continue to grow, although we are still far from those observed in the years 2006 and 2007.

The number of families and individuals who choose to rent is growing. According to Eurostat, this number is approximately 24% in Spain (19% in 2007), and it is estimated that this percentage will gradually approach the European average over the years. The inaccessibility of financial credit by young people and geographical mobility in the young class are some of the reasons for this growth.

The objective for 2020 is to continue with our strategy of creating value for our shareholders by improving the profitability of the existing portfolio and acquiring new assets at attractive prices with the potential to increase income and value in the medium term. With this objective in mind, we are analyzing numerous investment opportunities both in Madrid and in other Spanish cities and we intend to attract new funds from Spanish and international investors to take advantage of the positive market momentum.

In addition, a large part of the portfolio could be divested, as it would have complied with the minimum holding period required to sell assets, benefiting from the special tax regime established in the SOCIMI Law. The Group is currently reviewing the portfolio to determine which assets would be marketed for sale. As envisaged in the Group's initial business plan, following the sale of these assets, the intention is to return to its shareholders by distributing part of the profits as extraordinary dividends and reinvesting another part in new assets that meet our strategy of creating value for shareholders.
